Responsible individuals of a CPEO must notify the IRS of any material changes to the information they submitted on the Responsible Individual Personal Attestation RIPA pursuant to section 2. It was Title II that was the new social insurance program we now think of as Social Security.

Emergency Economic Stabilization Act of 2008

The Treasury Department and the IRS have determined that the premise of the expectation noted in the legislative history that an exception to recognition treatment would apply to foreign goodwill and going concern value—namely, that outbound transfers of foreign goodwill and going concern value would not lead to abuse—is inconsistent with the experience of the IRS in administering section 367 d , and consequently no longer supports such an exception. The IRS and the Treasury Department request comments on the clarity of the proposed rules and how they can be made easier to understand. This paragraph b 6 does not apply for an individual who, with intentional or reckless disregard for the facts, provides incorrect information to an Exchange for the year of coverage.
