

Englishwomans experience in America

R. Bentley - An Englishwoman in Utah : the story of a life's experience in Mormonism : Stenhouse, Fanny, 1829

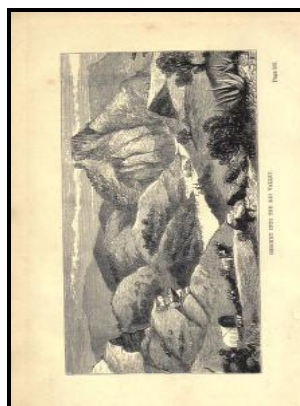

Description: -

-
Classical philology -- Periodicals
Shorelines -- Washington (State) -- Whatcom County
Murder -- England -- London -- Early works to 1800.
Turner, Mary, -- d. 1689 -- Early works to 1800.
Turner, Jacob, -- d. 1689 -- Early works to 1800.
Atlantic States -- Description and travel.
Canada -- Description and travel.
United States -- Description and travel.
Finch, Marianne.Englishwomans experience in America

-
Library of American civilization -- LAC 14820.Englishwomans experience in America

Notes: Microfiche. Chicago : Library Resources,inc., 1970. 1 microfiche ; 8 x 13 cm. (Library of American civilization ; LAC 14820)

This edition was published in 1970

Filesize: 53.87 MB

Tags: #Englishwoman #in #America #by #Isabella #Lucy #Bird

An Englishwoman's experience in America

The book's 20 chapters are full of keenly observed and entertainingly told stories of pickpockets and luggage thieves, greasy hotels, and Americans who are very polite, but have the unfortunate habit of spitting on the floor. There is nothing politically correct about her, but i Did you ever wonder what life was like in America pre-civil war? Isabella Bird was a formidable woman, and an excellent travel writer. The book's 20 chapters are full of keenly observed an In 1856, Isabella Bird published The Englishwoman in America, the first of what would be many books of her travels around the world.

An Englishwoman's experience in America

This is my first experience with this author but I will surely read this again and her other books as well. There are turns of phrase that I can imagine being spoken with that slight hint of self-assessed cleverness that some people exhibit, when talking about themselves in a breathless manner, looking for the approval that affirms just how marvelous they are.

An Englishwoman's experience in America

In 1856, Isabella Bird published The Englishwoman in America, the first of what would be many books of her travels around the world. She describes life for privileged people and others in the pre-Civil War period. Written with a direct flow, no holding back about what she thinks about things.

New Beginnings: Immigrant Women and The American Experience

Isabella Bird is a young Englishwoman traveling in the north-eastern United States and Canada in the 1850s.

Related Books

- Affluent market fact book - the financial and investment status, behavior, and preferences of afflu
- Lewon Shant'i ergerë.
- Urbanisation and regional development in Ireland.
- Vita di Antonio
- Yoshvim ba-hoshekh - 'olamo ha-dramati shel Hanokh Levin : subyeckt, mehaber, tofim