Pines' publication of An Arabic Version of the Testimonium Flavianum and its Implications Jerusalem: Israel Academy of Sciences and Humanities, 1971. Despite such concessions, however, Neusner remains a faithful Jew who believes that the teachings of Jesus diverge too much from God's laws as delivered by Moses, a point he makes clear in such books as A Rabbi Talks with Jesus: An Intermillennial, Interfaith Exchange, in which he argues that Jesus' claim that he had come to fulfill the prophecies of the Torah, not to rewrite its laws, is false because Jesus does, in fact, contradict those laws a number of times.
