Just throw a leg over and get going.

Leading international companies

Wool was often spun at home and produced by one's own sheep; cloth was made from hemp and flax.

Via Nassa, the heart of shopping

Subdivided into four sectors of major importance for the canton's economy, this section introduces you to some notable examples, with profiles, video clips and interviews with some of their employees, who were trained outside the borders of Ticino but ultimately decided to return home. .

Townie

Add it to your basket now and make it yours. Shopping in ancient Ticino was rather limited. Under the 270 meter long, ancient city porticoes on the lakeshore, there are many different kinds of shops: jewellery, clothing, gastronomy and antique shops are just some of the many, without forgetting a few department stores as well.
