Black Moss Press, External links Wikimedia Commons has media related to. At this polar latitude, on some late-fall evening of the early Eocene, the sun tried and failed to lift itself from the horizon. They were holding back the four winds of the earth to keep them from blowing on the land, the sea, or any tree.

Far Corners Of The Earth

We are now outside the evolutionary envelope of our modern world, sculpted as it was by the temperamental northern ice sheets and deep freezes of the Pleistocene. After this I saw four angels stationed at the four corners of the earth, holding back the four winds of the earth so that no wind would blow on the earth or on the sea or on any tree.

To the Far Corners of the Earth

Nevertheless, human civilization is unlikely to keep atmospheric CO<sub>2</sub> at a Pliocene level—so more ancient and extreme analogues must be retrieved.
