A Movie Theater With a Mission: Employing the Disabled

One of the simplest adaptations is the use of a remote, something many of us use to open doors. Three years ago, Queens Theatre made an intentional effort to work with more artists from the Disability community and to learn from other cultural institutions who were offering more accessibility services to their patrons and audience members. Characters who reflect Rose's struggle with mental illness include Laura in , in , and Catherine in the screenplay Williams wrote for the 1959 film.
