Statesmanship Quotes (41 quotes)

When necessary to advance the common good, they are willing to go against prevalent opinion and even to risk their political careers. In a toss-up race, a hundred votes here and there matter. But if a noble disciple has seen these five as defilements of the mind, he will give them up.

Reconsidering the Statesmanship of Abraham Lincoln

If I see ritualistic clergymen earnest and devout and thank God there are such, am I to conclude that God would have me in association with them? The alternative to major reform is further deterioration and, in foreign affairs, more wars and provocations that could at any time trigger a cataclysm.

Knot Gneiss

Let them also put it before those who are saved by their ministry. We shall be permitted to behold this very same Man, though now His sorrows are ended and He is glorified at God's right hand.

Five hindrances

The Ashram of Ceremonial Order Through the influence of this ashram, the power to rightly organize outer form in support of human evolution is offered. They are able to awaken in the way of śrāvakas and pratyekabuddhas but are not able to manifest and dwell in the state of the bodhisattva. The whole thing, indeed, has this underlying principle: that man has liberty in the Church of God to do what is right in his own eyes.

The Spiritual Kingdom

The only way to overcome remorse, the restlessness of a bad conscience, is to purify one's virtue and become kind, wise and gentle.

Statesmanship Quotes (41 quotes)

? The Honour of Christ The first reason is a due regard to the honour of Christ. Pray for All We can and do pray for many a servant of the Lord with whom we cannot have fellowship.
