Things to do in Amish Country Ohio The Farm at Walnut Creek Photo provided courtesy of Holmes County Tourism Bureau The Farm at Walnut Creek is a great place for kids to visit and hand feed over 500 exotic animals including giraffes, cattle, horses, elk, deer, camels, buffaloes, porcupines and more. The simple life has some characteristics we could all learn from it.

Places in Amish Country Worth Visiting This Year

Free educational seminars, quilting demonstrations, plus vendors offering fabrics, notions, patterns, books and more make this a must for quilt loving groups. The elegant home of Albert and Elizabeth Beardsley, once the centerpiece of Elkhart society, was named after their only child, who died in infancy. Indiana and Michigan wines are featured.

Amish Country (Lancaster County)

Northern Indiana Amish Country delivers all the expected pleasures plus a punch of colorful surprises, no matter the season.
