The phrase 'Rob Peter to pay Paul'

Thou hast heard their reproach, O Lord, and all their imaginations against me ; the lips of those that rose up against me, and their device against me all the day.

WORKS OF MARTIN LUTHER

No, no, my dear ; let us all party names, and call ourselves after Him Whose we have.

The phrase 'Rob Peter to pay Paul'

To this all things are possible, as saith; it alone ; it also comes to experience the works of , and thus attains to the of , and thence to and of , so that man esteems him highly and truly Him.

Psychoanalysis Psychotherapy

In order, therefore, that our works and our may not be in , but that we may become truly holy, it is necessary that , first, our spirit, and then our and body, not only from open , but much more from false and seeming good works. The first branch of the fifth part. Thus terminated the career of this truly valuable man.
