The Chilam Balam is another sacred book based on partially salvaged Yucatecan documents from the 17th and 18th centuries. Were on the Christian community in the early post-Apostolic age.

Catholic Tradition

The logic behind this profession stems from the general principle that although God can perform by His own power all that is effected by created natures, nevertheless, in the counsels of His providence He has preferred to help men by the instrumentality of other mens work; so also He makes use of human aid for that which lies beyond the limits of nature, for the salvation and sanctification of souls.

Spirituality

International aid agencies, several of them overtly Christian, rushed in to Guatemala at a time of great need and gained many grateful converts in the process.
