On 28 January 1988, the again upheld the convictions of the Birmingham Six as safe. I personally defused the third bomb. Now is the time to have a say to ensure the libraries of the future are as relevant and well-regarded as they have been in the past.

Birmingham pub bombings

A passing West Midlands bus was also destroyed in the blast. Following their transfer to the custody of the West Midlands Crime Squad, three other members of the Birmingham Six Callaghan, McIlkenny and Walker signed false confessions on 23 November.

Birmingham pub bombings

Reportedly, those who planted these bombs then walked to a preselected phone box to telephone the advance warning to security services; however, the phone box had been vandalised, forcing the caller to find an alternative phone box and thus shortening the amount of time police had to clear the locations. Nothing went right that night.
