May contain limited notes, underlining or highlighting that does affect the text. It is difficult to know just how much to say, because you want to highlight all your abilities and experiences but avoid rambling on. In his book To Become a Teacher: Making a Difference in Children's Lives, William Ayers 1995 raises and answers a simple yet profound question: What makes a good teacher? It prepares readers for the variety of roles advocate, facilitator, planner, mediator, etc.
