Chihuly Garden and Glass (Seattle)

Amazing what Dale Chihuly has created with glass. Chihuly has created more than a dozen well-known series of works, among them, Cylinders and Baskets in the 1970s; Seaforms, Macchia, Venetians, and Persians in the 1980s; Nijima Floats and Chandeliers in the 1990s; and Fiori in the 2000s.

You could easily spend a while here, but we went through in less than two hours. This includes the Gibson Chandelier, acquired from a private donor in 2013. By showing external content you accept the {termsUrl} of {hostName}.

Chihuly Garden and Glass

After graduating in 1965, Chihuly enrolled in the first glass program in the country, at the University of Wisconsin. Variations in scale made it possible for onlookers to experience his pieces as personal objects or to be completely immersed in them, as in his prismatic interior installations in a variety of public spaces. Special weekend celebrations, films, poetry, and fun-filled art programs for kids offer colorful and imaginative tributes to nature.

Chihuly Garden and Glass

What he does with glass has to be seen to be believed. Student Grant in 1968 where he was entranced by the fluid movements of the glassblowing teams of Murano and their dramatic skills with the medium of glass. This was definitely the highlight of our trip to Seattle.
