Easter 1916 Poem by W. B. Yeats

The horse that comes from the road, The rider, the birds that range From cloud to tumbling cloud, Minute by minute they change; A shadow of cloud on the stream Changes minute by minute; A horse-hoof slides on the brim, And a horse plashes within it; The long-legged moor-hens dive, And hens to moor-cocks call; Minute by minute they live: The stone's in the midst of all. Public opinion hardened against the British, and the move toward open rebellion against British rule became unstoppable. In 1918 she became the first female British MP and in 1919 the second woman to become a European cabinet minister as minister for labour in the first Dáil.

First Day of the Easter Rising

. Yeats: the man and the milieu. Lots of good stories and strong feelings well expressed.

Centenary of the Easter Rising

He was a much better talker than fighter.

Easter Rising: An Irish American Coming Up from Under by Michael Patrick MacDonald

Pearse and 14 other leaders were sentenced to death.

Dublin's Famous General Post Office

The executions helped win sympathy for Irish independence.

First Day of the Easter Rising

The rest included 143 from the British Army and 16 rebels executed, while more than 2,600 people were wounded.

The People of the 1916 Easter Rising

For England may keep faith For all that is done and said. On the same day, Acting Taoiseach Enda Kenny and Acting Arts Minister opened a permanent visitor centre at the , scene of rebel occupation in 1916. Here he lends his passion and intensity to tales of his teenage angst, which lead him out of Southie and into the neighborhoods beyond exploring the early punk scene, eventually making his way to New York City, London and Paris.

The Easter Rising

With that, Yeats got his first taste of what it was like to be in the middle of a war-zone.
