Fact Sheet: Temporary Protected Status (TPS)

Immigrant women are somewhat less likely about 5 to 10 percentage points to be employed than their third-plus generation peers in the same racial and ethnic group the pattern is reversed for those with less than a high school education.

Satisfaction with life among international students: An exploratory study

The new second generation: Segmented assimilation and its variants. Bills should show the dates when the respective services or supplies were furnished.

Best Ways to Bring Your Spouse to US

But it is fair to say that the hopes of new media proponents have only been partly realized, and that heavy electronic media use often impedes student learning. When changes have been made, they have generally taken years to legislate. Beaver and Tuck's 1998 study of tertiary students indicated that Asian and Pacific Island students showed more concern about asking questions and approaching lecturers than did Pakeha students.

Summary

The groups concentrated in low-status occupations in the first generation improve their occupational position substantially in the second generation, although they do not reach parity with third+ generation Americans.
