The dinner provided for the children varies almost every day.

Bristol UK Postcards

Over 1,000 large windows had to be fitted for the war-time blackout.

Bristol UK Postcards

During the war years, the homes were never short of food, although potatoes were unobtainable for a few months in 1917, and haricot beans were unavailable for a considerable period. Later George and Mary had four children, two of which were still-born.

Garden of Praise: George Muller Biography

Our book has Leather Binding on Spine and Corners with Golden Leaf Printing on round Spine. The cooking apparatus altogether is probably the most complete and efficient anywhere known. At last, in April, 1860, my dearest wife was brought so far, as that our kind and most attentive medical attendant could recommend her to go to Clevedon and use the warm sea-baths for the benefit of her arm and hand.
