The Big Knockover: Selected Stories and Short Novels by Dashiell Hammett

Hammett dedicated his first novel, , to Shaw and his second novel, , to Samuels. I'm definitely going to read the Op's novel-length adventures. The fact of breathing, just breathing, took up all the days and nights.

The Big Knockover by Dashiell Hammett

Although I must confess that this is my introduction to Hammets work.

The Big Knockover: Selected Stories and Short Novels by Dashiell Hammett, Paperback

I don't think I had read The Big Knockover in several decades -- at least I didn't really remember any of the stories. The title story was fun, with lots of old timey crook nicknames and double crosses! New York : Vintage Books, 2005. At the door I found she wasn't exactly following meshe was going with me.

The Big Knockover: Selected Stories and Short Novels by Dashiell Hammett

A nice collection of Continental Op stories other then one not completed work called Tulip. The Op faces off against a Chinatown mastermind in his labyrinthine den of evil! I love the Op's confidence and sense of sarcasm; the way he gives people the kind of attitude they want while steering them in the direction that he needs them to go in; his straightforward approach to a fistfight or a shoot-out. There is The Continental Op, The Return of the Continental Op, Nightmare Town and this volume, The Big Knockover.
