Assiniboia – The Red River Settlement

Location: Manitoba Owner: Lord Selkirk

Selkirk was a Scottish nobleman [rich guy from Britain] who felt bad for the crofters [people who rent and farm small pieces of land in Scotland] who had been thrown off their land by large landowners to raise sheep.

Selkirk was able to get a land grant of 300 000 sq/km in the valley of Red and Assiniboine rivers.

Another reason for a new colony in this area was to stop North West Company from competing with the HBC for furs. This area and community was inhabited by Metis and Natives who supplied the North West Company workers with pemican and other provisions.
