Sinasos Sunrise Hot-Air-Balloon Flight No doubt about that: Flying with a hot-air-balloon in Cappadocia must be one of the highlights of a trip to Cappadocia — as it offers aerial views on this beautiful region. This pink becomes more and more evident throughout the day, peaking at sunset when the sun glows directly onto the Rose Valley giving it that fine shade of pink so many people come to see. There are hundreds of rooms to explore but it is quite difficult to get into them unless you come from the bottom side up.

Caesar then incorporated Lesser Armenia into Cappadocia to serve as a buffer from Rome's interests in Asia Minor against future Eastern aggression. Climb up, relax and enjoy the show as you watch over Goreme Town and the Red Valley. It is by far one of the most picturesque corners of Cappadocia and way less crowded than the Göreme Open Air Museum
