It has been a LONG while since I have written on here. I am hoping it is just my fear getting the best of me. Talk about what decisions you should make together and which ones you should make alone.

Coping

It helps that she is a deft researcher, a smart, sometimes painfully honest writer, and an audacious reporter.

Lessons Learned From Cancer Patients

How long I had endured chemotherapy 5. You might also want to consider how much you want to know about your cancer.

Sun Sentinel

I cannot wait what else life has in store for me. Sometimes people are not sure what to say when they learn you have cancer. I cannot believe it is over, and I still don't believe it is.

Crisis and Coping — Learning to Live with Cancer

Some days may end up being better than others, depending on how your partner feels. But most importantly, I continue to give of myself.

Living with cancer: As science gets better at controlling it, let's kill the battle rhetoric

You might need a change in medication. In one dream, the doctor told my parents I had an incurable brain tumor, and that I would die within 6 months.

Sun Sentinel

Then, I broke the news the only way I knew how. But being too tired to walk, run, cycle, rock climb, dance, scrapbook, or even knit for cancer may be a special blessing in itself. Made perfect sense to me, but I seriously could not understand why my past doctors had not informed me of this.
