International tax: trends and developments in 2020 and beyond — Financier Worldwide

In April 1996, the IASC announced that it had accelerated its work program, and the Commission responded with a press release expressing support for the IASC's objective. SIC-12, Consolidation - Special Purpose Entities, is effective for annual financial periods beginning on or after July 1, 1999, with earlier application encouraged.

Main legal issues in international business expansion

What is clear is that the virus and its aftermath looks likely to be with us for some time.

Corporation Finance: International Financial Reporting and Disclosure Issues

Under the new Canadian GAAP standard, shares are recorded at their face value when issued. Pro forma information reflecting the effects of the business combination between the registrant and target company must be either presented on a US GAAP basis or reconciled to US GAAP, even if the target company is permitted to omit the US GAAP reconciliation in its separate financial statements. Where reliable and relevant to an understanding of trends, presentation of revenues or non-financial operating statistics may be required for the earlier years.

Both UK GAAP and IAS have specific disclosure requirements that include identification of the required treatment from which the enterprise has departed, the nature of the departure, including the treatment that would be required, the reason why that treatment would not give a true and fair view, the treatment adopted and the financial impact of the departure on the enterprise's financial statements. Goodwill lives of 20 years or less would continue to be eligible for the accommodation under Form 20-F. Foreign private issuers currently are exempt from the proxy rules, are not required to file Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q or 10-QSB, and are subject to different corporate governance regimes in their home countries.

US foreign investment: issues and challenges

Changing to US GAAP for the Primary Financial Statements A registrant that loses its foreign private issuer status becomes subject to the reporting requirements for a domestic company on that date. In circumstances where an issuer has adopted this provision of the Act, the staff has required the issuer and its auditors to confirm that no actual indemnification has been provided or sought, to acknowledge that such indemnifications are deemed to be unenforceable under US securities laws, and to undertake not to provide or seek indemnification in the future.
