The breadth of scholarship and clarity of presentation make this book a valuable resource for musicologists, theater historians, and students of early Italian culture.

Professor Laurie Stras

. It is a well-written,intelligent, well researched account of music in Sienese convents, and of Sienain this period.

Holy Concord Within Sacred Walls Nuns and Music in Siena, 1575

In contrast to earlier studies of Italian convent music, this book draws upon archival sources to reconstruct an ecclesiastical culture that celebrated music internally and shared music freely with the community outside convent walls.
