This index appears at the end of the Folder by Folder Inventory and includes references to well known names in Sociology and Anthropology, such as: Margaret Mead, Mary R. I remarked that I did not think so, since they were generally illustrated with pictures of rather nice-looking white girls.

Castiglioni Castiglioni, Stern, Bernhard J., Society and Medical Progress

In addition, three of Stern's own books all on medicine were banned from the State Department's overseas libraries.

Archives West: Bernhard J. Stern papers, circa 1894

Two blacks and two whites were the subjects. A population which eats much garlic has another characteristic odor; onions engender still other consequences; smoked salmon and venison, pickled herrings, and yams, still others. That issue Winter 1957 contains tributes by long-time friends and colleagues Corliss Lamont and Robert K.
