He and his wife, Joanne Tomblin, applied their green thumbs to the gubernatorial garden, creating a plot in the shape of West Virginia.

Mississippi Governor's Mansion

From the earliest oral traditions Delta storytellers possessed a strong sense of place, of which the landscape, water, and heat formed the backdrop. If we could but find the right words and uncover the exact photographs, we could save out of the past the people, the places, the events, the sense of time and family that is the heritage of the South. Many Folk Victorian houses were adorned with flat, jigsaw cut trim in a variety of patterns.

Here's What You Need to Know About the Mississippi Governor's Mansion

Twentieth-century Dutch Colonial Revival houses borrow the gambrel roof found on historic Dutch Colonial houses. Clearly written, cleanly designed, and fun to use, this guide promotes a better understanding of the conservation of this fascinating but often maligned group of animals.
