OCLC Classify

Classify provides a user interface and a machine service for assigning classification numbers and subject headings. Each ISBN is a 10 or 13 digit number.

MARC Record from Library of Congress

Thirteen-digit ISBNs must begin with either 978 or 979. Hyphens or spaces usually separate the elements of the number on the item. The database is searchable by many of the standard numbers associated with books, magazines, journals, and music and video recordings.

OCLC Classify

Your local library may be able to help you gain access to a resource found through Classify and WorldCat. FAST headings provide additional subject information about a work and enable you to search the Classify database by subject.

MARC Record from Library of Congress

The Classify prototype helps librarians apply classification numbers to resources in library collections. To learn more about FAST, please visit the on OCLC.
