Rose Wilder Lane

He was later the producer for the Little House on the Prairie TV series.

The Ghost in the Little House by William V. Holtz

His work on Lane's biography was aided by a Fellowship from the National Endowment for the Humanities. In Rose's day, an author could make money by traveling the world and sending her thoughts and observations back for publication in the states, even make a living. They bounced their ideas and arguments off each other, and it emboldened them.
