Robert Penn Warren

One novel, All the King's Men, won a Pulitzer Prize. He was the oldest of three children; others being Mary, the middle child, and Thomas, the youngest. Following the success of All the King's Men, however, Warren seemed to turn to more loosely told stories about dramatic and romantic subjects, such as the interracial theme of Band of Angels 1955 or the natural catastrophes that serve as the crisis background for The Cave 1959 and Flood: A Romance of Our Time 1964.
