Diversity in Japanese Culture and Language

The Picture Stories are used widely across the US and abroad to instruct incoming refugees about the U. .

Ethnic Groups And Nationalities In Japan

For most Americans, the flag is not just a piece of cloth with red and white stripes and white stars against a field of blue.

7 Key Cultural Differences between US and Japan

We're eaters, drinkers, travelers, and doers. Despite the controversy surrounding abortion today, it was very common in the ancient world. Examples in the United States include traffic laws, criminal codes, and, in a college context, student behavior codes addressing such things as cheating and hate speech.

Japanese Cultural Values and their Influence on Business

The teachings of Buddhism and Shinto beliefs also came together to stress peaceful unity with others.

3.2 The Elements of Culture

This is a key learning point for anyone wanting to do business successfully in Japan or with the Japanese. More recently, Andrulis and Brach have noted that language and culture provide the experiential context for comprehension of health information. As Andrulis and Brach pointed out, if someone from a culture that does not use spoons is reading a medication label calling for a teaspoon of medication, the person, not realizing spoons come in different sizes, may take too much or too little of the prescribed medication.
