Why Aren't All Teachers Covered By Social Security?

Thanks I am 55 years old and have more than 30 years of earnings from which I paid into Social Security through private employment. The loophole allows workers whose pension plans are not part of Social Security to receive a share of their spouse's Social Security benefits. However, this arrangement works well only for the small percentage of teachers who stay 30 or more years in a single retirement system.

How to Get Social Security Benefits & TRS Benefits

Please note: Some educators work in jobs in which they do not pay Social Security taxes. Would I also benefit by waiting until ... Read more » I worked 1985-1995 in business and paid into SS for 40 quarters.

However, not every state participated.

Information for Educators

Once you've accumulated -- which for most workers takes 10 years -- you're entitled to retirement benefits on your own work history.

Teacher's Retirement and Social Security (2021 Update)

This provision counts two-thirds of the non-Social Security pension as though it came from Social Security.

Social Security benefits

Sadly, she passed away a short three years later. I would have to work for another 10 years to get a semi decent retirement from STRS. Other professions that often fall into this group include public sector workers like firefighters, police officers and numerous other state, county and local employees.
