The American Trial Jury: Current Issues and Controversies

We do so by combining a data set that provides information on both the seated jury and jury pool for each trial with a research design that seeks to isolate a random source of variation in jury

EQUAL PROTECTION AND RACE

Those favoring cameras in the courtroom assert the First Amendment's guarantee of freedom of the press.

Being a Juror

Dawson, public beaches and bathhouses ; Holmes v. However, nothing about becoming a prospective juror amounts to a willing waiver of an expectation of privacy. Instead, the court should have proceeded first against the city alone, and should have proceeded against individual council members only if the sanctions against the city failed to produce compliance.

James Kirkland BATSON, Petitioner, v. KENTUCKY.

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA ON PETITION FOR A WRIT OF CERTIORARI TO THE UNITED STATES COURT OF APPEALS FOR THE ARMED FORCES CAPITAL CASE BRIEF FOR THE UNITED STATES IN OPPOSITION BARBARA D. The report offers detailed recommendations for ensuring full representation of people of color on juries throughout the U.

Racial Discrimination in the Courts: The Case of Marcus Robinson

Although heterogeneity in the jury pool is obviously unavoidable, a potentially desirable feature of a justice system is that jury verdicts are not arbitrary given the evidence.

Why Is It So Easy for Prosecutors to Strike Black Jurors?

Juror Privacy Because of the contemporary media spotlight on high-profile trials, there is a heightened anxiety among some jurors about their lives after the trial, including fears of disruption and threats to their safety and well-being. When there are no potential black jurors in the pool, black defendants are significantly more likely than whites to be convicted of at least one crime 81% for blacks versus 66% for whites. As appellate courts in Washington, California, Iowa, and the District of Columbia have shown, inherent in the principles underlying Batson are many opportunities to change course.

The jury selection process

It does so on the basis of a constitutional argument that was rejected, without a single dissent, in Swain v. Alabama. The third and fourth columns of repeat the same structure as the first two columns using the fraction of the first five offenses on which the defendant was found guilty as the dependent variable.

DOAR

We will need to be both vigilant and inventive in resolving these issues so as to ensure the continued viability of the citizens jury. As each county circuit court maintains their own records of jury trials, these data were obtained through separate requests to each county.
