Analysis of Kingsley Amis's Novels

This diary included intimate details of Amis's final illness and debilitation as well as hurtful private remarks about close relations. Used to be milite the more proper of a pair, the other being Kinarsoles. In retrospect, it is clear that Kingsley Amis is a moralist as well as a humorist.

bibliography

The two men might almost not have been related for all the impact he appears to have had on Kingsley's life. This period also saw Amis as an anthologist, displaying a wide knowledge of all kinds of English poetry.

The Biographer's Moustache by Kingsley Amis

That we had each recently re-read his father's novels and poems meant we could also consult about elusive quotations and obscure literary allusions. The young Amis's identification with the party of the Welfare State was always emotional rather than ideological, and Lucky Jim was a rebel rather than a revolutionary. In fact, the whole novel is one of status and stasis, where the characters excepting the girlfriend all have simply run in place mostly entertainingly , only just barely aware of having done so.
