Join us for First Friday in the Kansas City office of the Missouri Humanities Council, 1800 Baltimore, to enjoy the music and stories of French Midwest Creoles presented by fiddle player Dennis Stroughmatt. Additionally, they offer cultural videos so you can learn things like Haitian prayers, common gestures and typical phrases used by the natives. I know of one long-held tradition which was the Guianneé also written la Guignolée or la Guillaneé , which was performed on New Years.
