Vol. 1, No. 3, Tadayoshi MURAKAMI

There is not enough space here to describe the situation of the Lanna sect of the Sangha in Maehongson, although it would be the same as that of the Shan sect as discussed above.

Care is not a profession and is not licensed by any voice of authority; it is the role of a layperson in Buddhist practice. Poetic Dhamma and the Zare: Traditional Styles of Teaching Theravada amongst the Shan of Northern Thailand. The chief monk of Maehongson here refers to the provincial chief monk of Maha-nikai.

At a minimum, they have to learn the recitation of Pali with Thai pronunciation so they can participate in group recitation with other monks during Buddhist rituals. As we have seen above, care are the scribes and reciters of lik long. Manuscripts are offered and recited in some Buddhist rituals in Maehongson, too.

I'd use it when watching T. However, devout and wealthy laypersons still offer lik long manuscripts. Not only did the British create jobs, but they also provided local people with prime commodities from lower Burma via the Salween River route.

SMK Ratna Wartha Ubud

The recitation of lik is called ho lik in Shan. The accelerated migration of Myanmarese workers has prompted the Thai government to control and incorporate local practices more strictly.

Nearly half the care 28 had been born in the Shan State and moved to Maehongson.

Samhan

Most of the care had experience in reciting lik long in Buddhist rituals. The two letters were formerly used indiscriminately, and till a comparatively recent date words containing them were often classed together in dictionaries and other books of reference see {U}. ? EN: that ; to + v.
