Agents Provocateurs as a Type of Faux Activist—Gary T. Marx

They may have organizational, career or ideological incentives to exaggerate the threat posed by a movement and to play a provocative role, and infrequently the role of the double agent. He betrayed many of his colleagues, but also arranged for numerous assassinations including the Minister of the Interior his employer and an attempt on the Tsar.

Agents Provocateurs as a Type of Faux Activist—Gary T. Marx

According to singer , owing to the difference in production styles between Sadkin and Horn, only two of the tracks that had been cut with the latter were kept on the record, though it's unclear which ones. The album was the band's first and only number one album in the United Kingdom, and it reached the top 5 in the United States.

Agent Provocateur (album)

The idea of the agent provocateur entered popular consciousness in the 19th century as Europe experienced dislocation and conflicts associated with industrialization and urbanization.
