In any case he openly embraced Roman Catholicism while at Madrid and then returned to Tenerife in the late summer of 1659 carrying licences which gave him 'considerable freedom' in his trade.

Reporting a Revolution: a Failed Propaganda Campaign

We be borne not for our selves alone ... all to the use of man is created ... that may serve for common commodities, by enterchaunge of duties in giving, and taking and also by arts, by travail, by riches, to knitte the fellowship of man with man. A single trial or judicial decision is sometimes called a cause célèbre when it is remarkable on account of the parties involved, the unusual nature of the facts, or the sensational publicity surrounding it. Paine journeyed to Paris to oversee a French translation of the book in the summer of 1792.
