10 Commandments for talking to your kids about religion

CONTENT OF TEACHING: The content of religious education should be decided keeping in mind the above aim. Roughly three-in-ten or fewer say they regularly wear jewelry or clothing with religious symbols, pray before lunch, invite other students to worship services or a youth group, or leave school during the day to participate in religious activities.

Catholic Faith Formation and Teens

Those who report that they have experienced this type of behavior by a teacher cite a variety of circumstances and ways in which it has happened. The ordinary path to this prayer is through meditation that enlightens the mind with the transforming truths of God, and affective prayer that draws the will into union with the will of God. What Worked in the Past? Week 2: What Should I Teach? In the survey sample, 5% of high school students enrolled in schools are in private schools.

Youth Ministry: Teaching Prayer to Teens

There are difficulties in the catechesis of teenagers.

For a Lot of American Teens, Religion Is a Regular Part of the Public School Day

Without doubt some adults have experienced great depths in prayer with no formal teaching on it, but these generous blessings of God do not excuse our omissions as catechists.

Teaching Religion to Adolescents: Creative Strategies and Best Practices

The catechist is called to real holiness, so that he can be a living witness for the Church, passing on to others a life of holiness. Tell them that the existence of God, in any shape or form, is something no one can prove or disprove, which is what makes it so easy to debate. The arousal of love is of course a goal of meditation, and the beginning seeds of this love are found in effective vocal prayer, in its requirement of devotion.

Youth Ministry: Teaching Prayer to Teens

The truths to be approached in meditation, however, are age specific. This helps with discipline and order in the class room, as well as helping the students to trust and respect you so they can open up to you. The prime goal of any discipline of education should be to elevate one into a fully dignified status as human beings.
