Marable, Manning, Black American Politics. Agreement will have to be built in an exploratory, piecemeal, and slower way, working from case to case, in the details of what compromises make sense.

How Hatred Came To Dominate American Politics

By funneling protest energy into the two-party electoral framework, some control could be restored over an explosive situation.

Politics of the United States

But neither side has come to dominate. This leads to an increase in authoritarian values because of an increased incentive to force minority groups to conform to social norms. They are busily appealing to the middle-class and white southern voters to offset losses that have benefited the Republicans.

Trump has , but even for the few remaining Trump-skeptic Republicans, nothing unites like a common enemy. The majority of studies on descriptive representation have suggested that districts where at least 50% of the voter base is composed of minority voters have a higher likelihood of minority representation. This back and forth has defied predictions of permanent Republican and Democratic majorities, but the closeness of elections has kept such elusive predictions of total domination both tantalizingly within reach for one side and dangerously close for the other side.

Hall of Fame

While PAC money tended to go to Republicans in presidential contests, it flowed to both parties in congressional elections.
