Does this mean that the ELCA and other LWF affiliates are now in doctrinal agreement with the canonical Orthodox churches on the question of the Holy Spirits procession? Historians of the extraterrestrial life debate, such as Michael Crowe and Steven Dick, have most. Ippolito is also a member of the summer faculty of the Au Sable Institute of Environmental Studies in Mancelona, Michigan. However, also on the basis of what we have seen in the writings of Chemnitz and Andreae, and from the perspective of the Confessional Lutheran theology that they represent, it is the judgment of the present writer that a Lutheran church which might emerge from, or take root in, the Byzantine Christian tradition, need not be required to start using the Latin version of the Creed in place of the traditional Greek version, if the members of that church are accustomed to the Greek version.
