This passage offers the clearest definition of the gospel. There is a wealth of insightful theological material here.

Witness to the Gospel

Those who proselytize try to recruit people to their team. Those who preach the gospel without an accompanying apologetic are not preaching the gospel biblically! The context of these passages is important.

Witness to the Gospel

He insists that unless Christ's resurrection really and truly happened, our faith is in vain.

Were the four Gospels eye witness testimony?

Biblical theology is an approach to reading the whole story of the Bible while keeping our focus on the main point of Scripture: Jesus Christ. I challenge Christians to list the name of even ONE eyewitness to the death of Jesus who was still alive in 70 AD along with the evidence to support your claim. A person cannot put a historical document in a test tube and measure it according to that method, you have to find some other way of testing things.
