The posted documents do not include detailed information regarding the circumstances of the death or the rationale for the recommendations.

Corrections in Ontario

The reality is that the vast majority of incarcerated mothers and fathers must interact with their children through closed visits for rarely more than 40 minutes per week. The information gleaned from complaints can provide management with consistent data about the operations of the institution, allow for trends to be analyzed over time, and identify new or growing areas of concern. Maintaining contact with family members overseas can also be difficult: long distance overseas calls are not generally permitted, and may only be authorized by the superintendent if an inmate makes a written request.
