The chief contribution of al-Ghazali lay instead in his identification with the antiphilosopical party, and his attempt to prove the incoherence of the philosophers on philosophical grounds; hence his importance in the history of philosophical thought in Islam. Mittlerer Kommentar zu Aristoteles' De generatione et corruptione, Paderborn: Schöningh.

الغزالى

When the Emperor Frederick II. William of Auvergne is the first Schoolman who criticizes the doctrines of Averroes, not, however, by name.

Influence of Arabic and Islamic Philosophy on the Latin West

In 1091 Nizām al-Mulk appointed al-Ghazālī to the prestigious Nizāmiyya Madrasa in Baghdad. In this discipline, Arabic philosophers had been particularly active, and Latin philosophers were particularly interested.

Arabian Philosophy

On the other hand, he came to represent those aspects of Peripateticism most alien to the spirit of Christendom; and the deeply religious Moslem gave his name to the anti-sacerdotal party, to the materialists, sceptics and atheists, who defied or undermined the dominant beliefs of the church. They were confirmed in this by the widespread adulation reserved for ancient philosophers, from Socrates to Aristotle, who were erroneously supposed to partake of their irreligion. Universals thus have two components: essence and universality, which is attached to the essence in the mind only.

In real terms, however, combustion occurs only concomitantly when fire touches cotton and is not connected to this event. The idea of particularization takhsîs includes implicitly an understanding of possible worlds that are different from this. The principal philosophical counter-argument, first presented by Averroes himself¹ Comm.
