

Age of neo-classicism.

Arts Council of Great Britain - Neoclassicism

Description: -

- age of neo-classicism
- age of neo-classicism

Notes: Catalogue of an exhibition at the Royal Academy and the Victoria & Albert Museum, London, 9 September - 19 November, 1972.

This edition was published in 1972

Filesize: 25.71 MB

Tags: #Powerpoint #Palooza

English Literature: THE AUGUSTAN AGE

This literary Neoclassical movement rejected the extreme romanticism of for example , in favour of restraint, religion specifically Christianity and a reactionary political program.

Romanticism

The bloodless revolution of 1688 called the Protestant William and Mary of Orange to the throne.

English Literature: THE RESTORATION AGE

As it is, this essay series bring us within measurable distance of the genuine eighteenth century novel. Women, who had plenty of leisure, sought pleasure through novel reading. And the Restoration comedy of manners reflected the morally vicious but intellectually brilliant atmosphere of the saloons and the chocolate houses.

Jacques

Miss Clara Reeve 1729-1807 is remembered for Old English Baron. The transitional poetry marks the beginning of a reaction against the rational, intellectual, formal, artificial and unromantic poetry of the age of Pope and Johnson.

Powerpoint Palooza

The latter half of the eighteenth century witnessed the swift rise of historical literature. Polish and elegance of form were of more importance than subtlety or originality of thought. For them, while revelation may be above reason, it is not contradictory to reason.

Related Books

- East Dorset.
- Indo-European parataxis.
- Cancer care nursing - a flexible learning programme.
- New and easy method to understand the Roman history - with an exact chronology of the reign of the emperors.
- Pour l'honneur de l'armée - réponse au général Schmitt sur la guerre d'Algérie