What It Is Like: New and Selected Poems

This is an eternal process. The lines describing the movement of the goats are not only pictorial, they have a vivid sense of immediacy as well.

No One Can Stem the Tide : Selected Poems 1931

Malignant Fate sat by, and smil'd. Dietrich Bonhoeffer, Dorothy Day, Søren Kierkegaard, C. By leaving behind the things we cannot change, we make room for new beginnings and move forward with hope and grace.

8 Poems to Help You Embrace Change

One of them is so short and compact, it's own structure mimics the subject! To Contemplation's sober eye Such is the race of man: And they that creep, and they that fly, Shall end where they began.

What It Is Like: New and Selected Poems

Excerpted from Selected Poems by Vladimir Nabokov. The poem takes up the archetypal theme of life as a journey. And I brought so much with me that my impressions would always be there, even when the tide rolled out.

Sorley MACLEAN / SPRING TIDE AND NEAP TIDE SELECTED POEMS 1932

And death is the promise of a new morning. Bloomy and purple as clover were the fog-grass and bent; The field so wide, it broke on misty boundaries. Then, new settlements are made, and words, languages, are further refined.
