Charles Mathews appeared less often, until he gave his Comic Annual after the regular season had ended. Jane Scott made at least one serious address to the audience, and Widdicombe a comic one, and Andrew Campbell did his imitations. AL The Adelphi Theatre Seasonal Digest for 1828-1829 Ed.

Contract

Miss Scott complicated Southeys plot, and her surprise revelations at the denouement softened his stark vision. A duet by her and Salter was encored in a performance of Luke the Labourer in October the Wasp, 27 October 1826 , although the piece as a whole received adverse criticism, chiefly on moral grounds.
