Racial harassment and the process of victimization; conceptual and methodological implications for the local crime survey.

Racial Victimization as a Process Despite the primacy of incident-based accounts of crime and racial violence, some authors have argued that crime should be seen not as an event, but as a process. Riots Reframed Wednesday, 8th October 2014 at 6:30 Wolfson Theatre, New Academic Building at the LSE NAB. That is why the NF does not do well in the elections; they do better on the streets — look how racial attacks have become part of the popular culture, with the state as a party to it.
