The Iranian Crisis of 1945

Their joint 'Tripartite Treaty' of January 1942 declared that their military presence was not an occupation, proclaimed Iran to be their ally, and pledged to withdraw their troops within six months of the end of the war.

Iran and the United States in the Cold War

Kurdish offensives were limited to minor skirmishes due to the removal of Soviet influence in the region that month, possibly due to a Soviet-Iranian oil agreement. While the British acknowledged that it was an Iranian asset, the priority was to supply the Allies, so Iranian sovereignty was ignored.
