The Word was God

John 11:19 Commentaries: and many of the Jews had come to Martha and Mary, to console them concerning their brother.

You shall meet One so much greater. It was expected that if He miraculously met the needs of so many others, He would meet their need also.

John 11 Gill's Exposition

Each of the Gospels emphasizes a different origin of Jesus.

What does John 11:35 mean?

He made this commitment without much understanding of a promise of resurrection. These notes proceed on the basis that Paul's letter to the Ephesians actually addresses the Ephesian congregation, but it is possible that it is a circular letter for the churches of Asia Minor. That story ended with the formerly blind man bearing testimony to Jesus and the Pharisees driving him out—an ironic twist in which the formerly blind man is blessed with spiritual insight as well as physical sight while the spiritual leaders of Israel refuse to see—a fact that Jesus lifts up in his discourse on spiritual blindness 9:35-41.

John 10:11

Let us go to Judea again: Jesus could have raised Lazarus from a distance.

What does John 11:35 mean?

. He was not the light, but came to bear witness about the light. .

Enduring Word Bible Commentary John Chapter 11

The Romans will come and take away both our place and nation: As Jesus attracted more and more followers, the religious leaders feared that the Romans would regard it as a significant threat.

The Word was God

A certain preeminence DID pertain to Peter: 1 He preached the first gospel sermon Acts 2:14ff
