European Social Charter

Recognises that political and economic stability along with military capabilities and cooperation in Sub-Saharan Africa are key to mitigating the growth of jihadist activity and migrant crises and combating the spread and influence of extremism; 109.

Reporting system of the European Social Charter

Does the Committee have a list of the Northern Ireland members of CIPS? A number of members have indicated that they have questions.

Items where Year is 1990

Mr McNarry: This evidence session has been very useful and extremely helpful.

Child sexual abuse in Europe

Calls on the Commission to propose targets for separate collection, waste reduction, reuse and recycling, as well as other specific actions such as extended producer responsibility, in priority sectors such as commercial waste, textiles, plastics, electronics, construction and food; urges the Commission to develop measures to support the market for recycled materials in Europe, including common quality standards, as well as mandatory targets for the use of recovered materials in priority sectors where feasible; underlines the importance of developing non-toxic material cycles, stepping up the substitution of substances of very high concern, and promoting research and innovation to develop non-toxic products; calls on the Commission to consider measures to address imported products containing substances or components that are banned within the EU, and considers that these should not be reintroduced on the EU market in consumer products through recycling activities; 38. Recalls that forests are indispensable to our planet and biodiversity; welcomes the intention of the Commission to tackle global deforestation and asks it to step up its actions; calls on the Commission to present, without delay, a proposal for a European legal framework based on due diligence to ensure sustainable and deforestation-free supply chains for products placed on the EU market, with a particular focus on tackling the main drivers of imported deforestation and instead encouraging imports that do not create deforestation abroad; 72.

Decisions and Conclusions

Stresses that legislation on food contact materials and maximum residue levels of pesticides should be revised and be based on the latest scientific findings; urges the Commission to ban food additives that are harmful to human health; recalls the crucial role of healthy food in the reduction of cardiovascular diseases, as well as cancers; stresses the importance of setting up a legal framework, including enforcement mechanisms, for imported food products to comply with European environmental standards; 63. If Scottish political actors take the work of these institutions seriously, they should propose reforms; as these institutions are unlikely to change until pressure builds and serious alternatives are tabled, Scotland might as well be in the vanguard.

Child sexual abuse in Europe

As to the nature of the impartial body mentioned in the last paragraph of the Article, reference is made to Article 8 of the ILO Convention. Committee on Development: 26 members, III.

Items where Year is 1974

I suspect that the Committee will be particularly interested to know that SMEs are the organisations which dislike social clauses the most. Ensure senior Scottish Government managers appreciate the importance of supporting the work of policy officials handling EMs across the office.
