Conflict is a normal part of a relationship because we are individuals with different experiences, expectations, hopes and fears. I think it made me more self-reliant and I can honestly say that I have never been lonely in my life, because I am good with my own company. Maybe I've just been spoiled by more thoughtful examinations of social phenomena such as.

How to Raise an Only Child: 8 Steps (with Pictures)

This creativity makes me a great writer but it can also be the death of me: I spend so much time thinking that sometimes I forget to live in the moment.

The Only Child: Being One, Loving One, Understanding One, Raising One by Darrell Sifford

To help your child become more independent, , explains Wallace.

The Only Child: Being One, Loving One, Understanding One, Raising One by Darrell Sifford

It was made clear to me that she got jealous of me when I was born. How boring would the world be if we all were perfect. Siblings like parents, mirror you and teach you things about yourself.

All I can say to only children, would you rather have abusive parents but had a sibling! To say that I was and am the focus of her life is an understatement to say the least.

How a Child Can Become a Narcissist

Whilst it is not unique it is still different to one where a child has the opportunity to grow up with siblings. She fitted in just fine. Be sure to respect and enforce your own boundaries.
