Scotland Bill (Hansard, 13 January 1998)

They should be supported, but the key amendments are Amendments 1 and 2 in the names of the noble Baronesses, Lady Chakrabarti, Lady Ritchie of Downpatrick and of Moulsecoomb, and the noble Lord, Lord Paddick, who have all spoken persuasively on them. Most hereditary peerages can be inherited only by men. The noble Baroness, of Moulsecoomb, wants to ensure that criminals do not profit from the crimes they are asked to commit.

Government Defeats in the House of Lords

They have realised that self-government is necessary. The Deputy Presiding Officer Before we move on, I gently remind ministers that it is for the chair to call speakers, not for them to pass on. Those provisions are simple to understand, but they deal with something that has been a problem.

House of Lords

The House of Lords was reduced to a largely powerless body, with Cromwell and his supporters in the Commons dominating the Government. That is what is driving the export plan. However, it is an important issue.
